

SOLVING REAL TIME COLLABORATION WITH MARVIN LIVE

KRISZTIAN NIESZ, IVAN SOLT AND ANDRAS STRACZ

Marvin Live is a 2-in-1 collaborative sketcher & a real time meeting assistant that is built to facilitate today's project and design discussions many times done remotely.

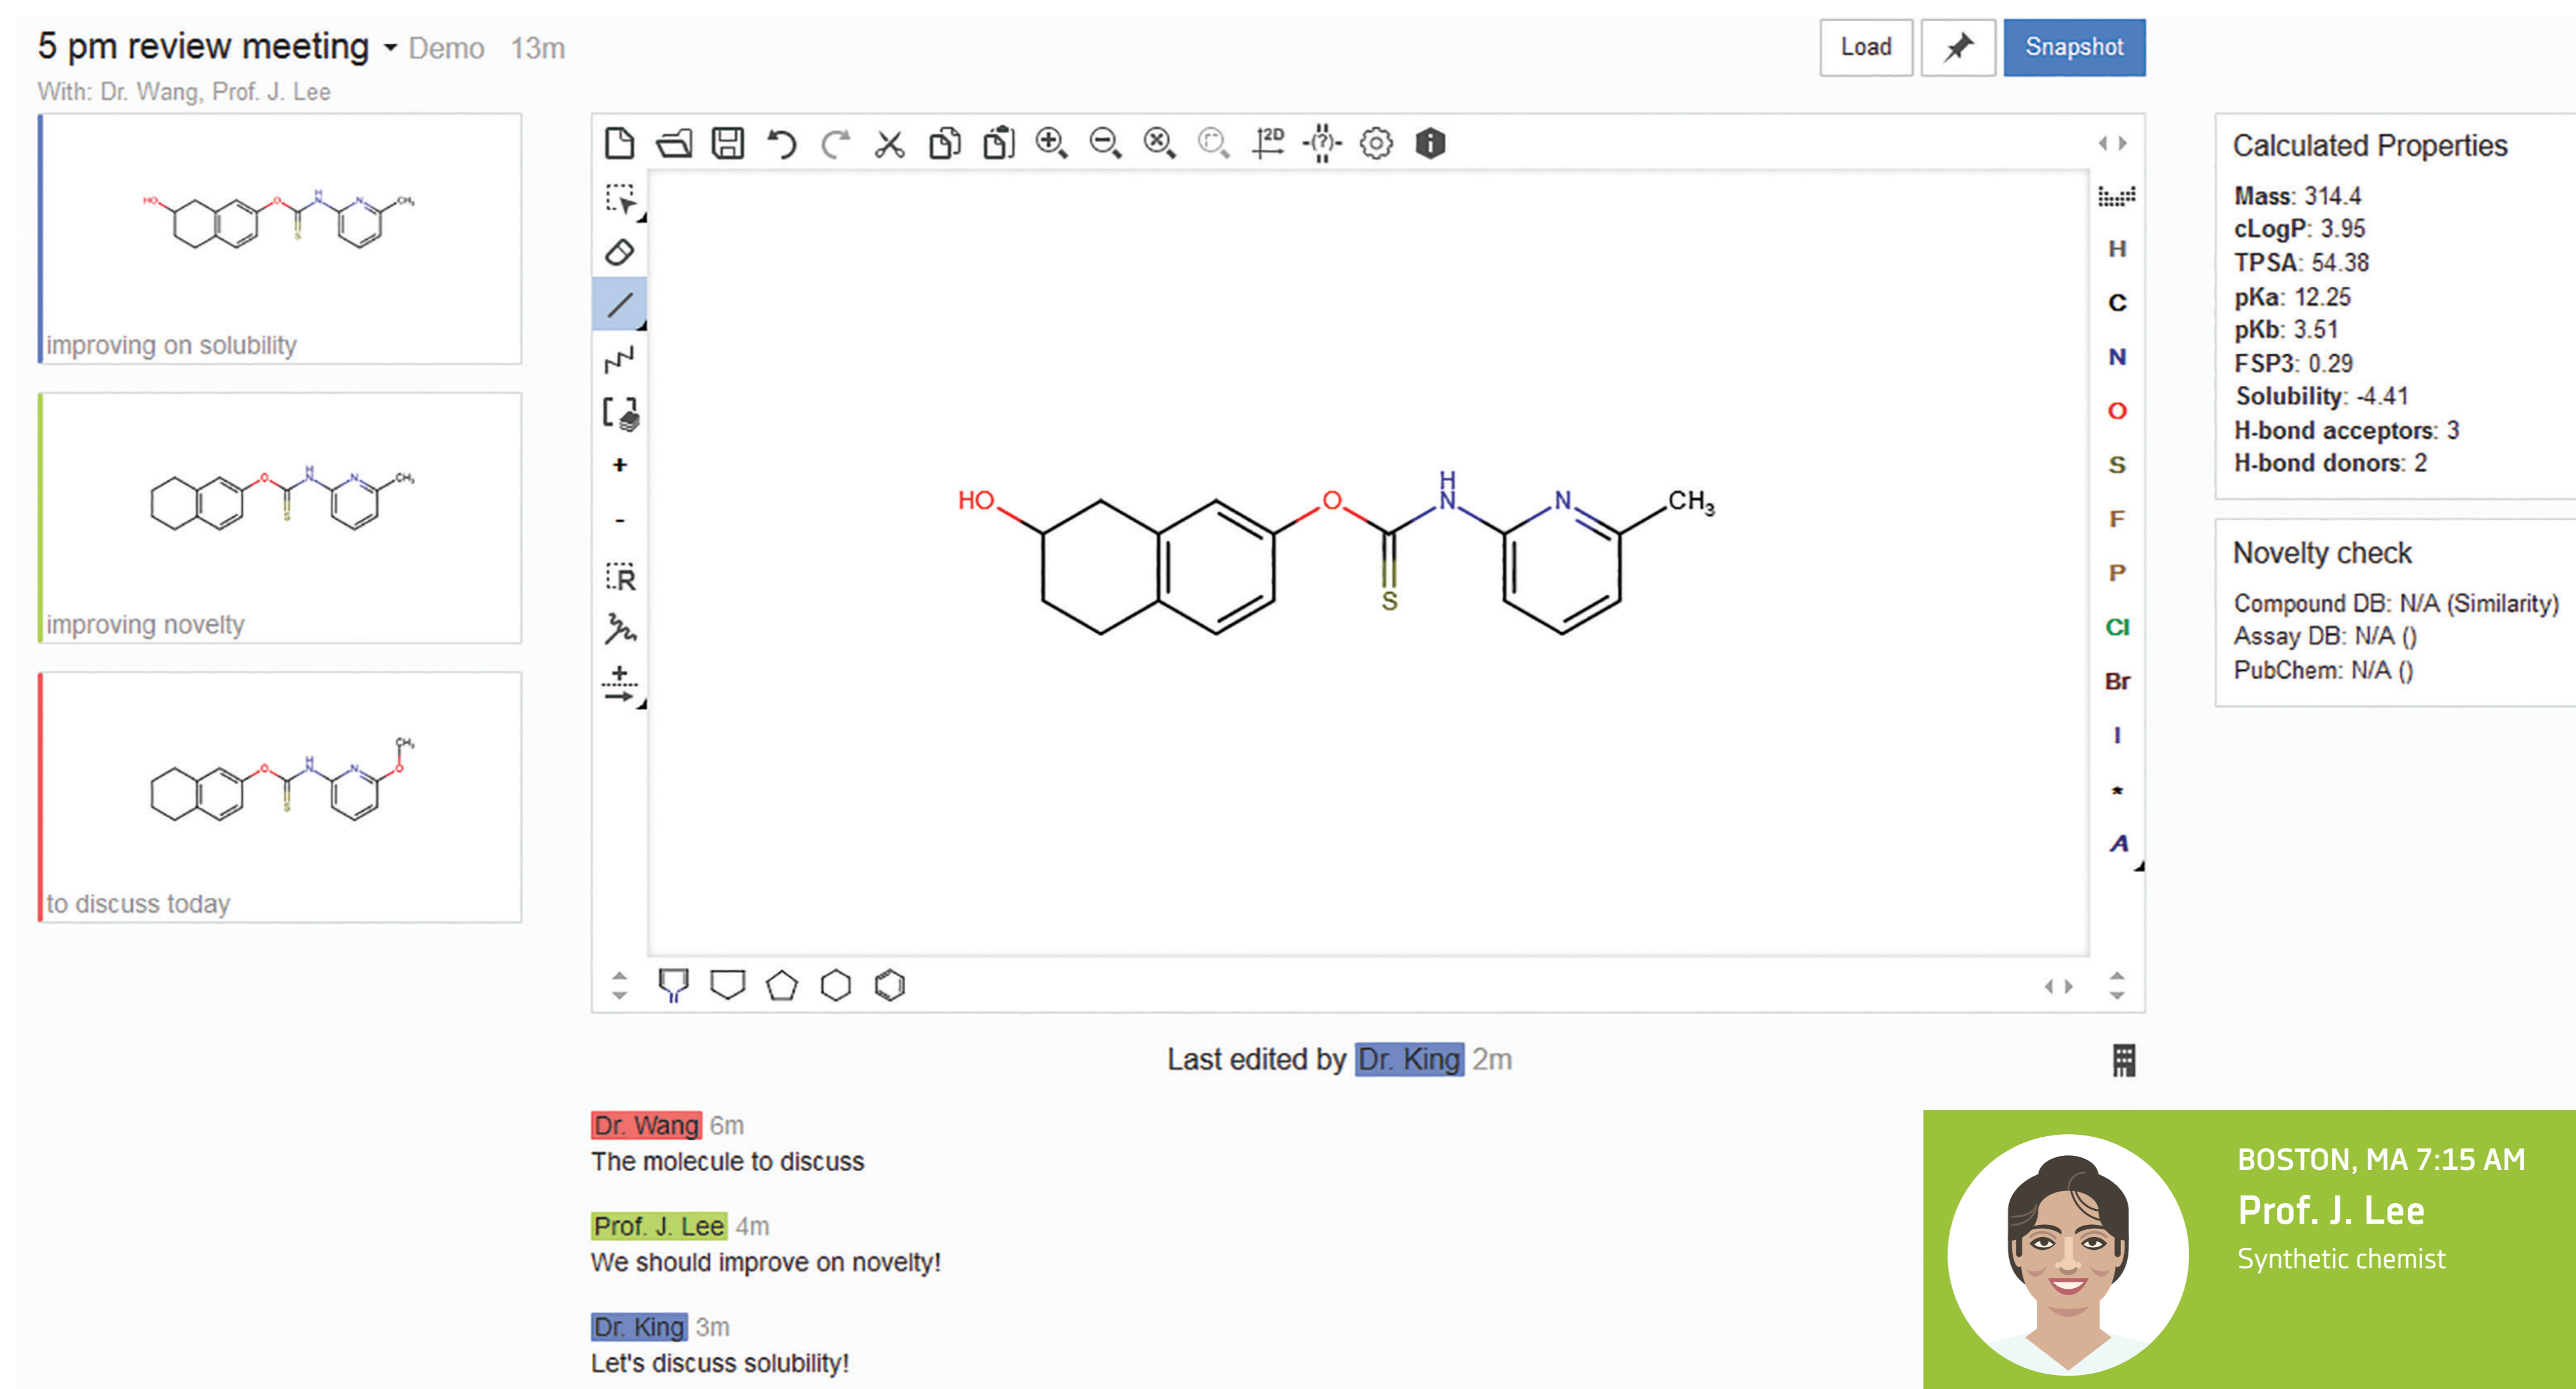

SHANGHAI 8:15 PM
Dr. Wang
Project manager at a manufacturing CRO

Featuring:

- Virtual meeting rooms
- Full chemical drawing capabilities offered by Marvin JS
- Automatic property calculations
- Easily extensible and customized analysis
- Smart meeting assistance
- Real time editing and feedback function
- Easy reporting (MS Office, searchable chemical formats)

5 pm review meeting - Demo 13m
With: Dr. Wang, Prof. J. Lee

Prof. J. Lee
Synthetic chemist

FRANKFURT 1:15 PM
Dr. King
Lead (medicinal chemist) of a structure design project at a big pharma company

Conclusions:

- Enabling teams of researchers and project leads to overcome geographic separation to make informed decisions in a fast and easy manner
- Being able to connect to corporate cheminformatics infrastructures to shorten the preparation time needed for the meetings
- Offering a one click solution to create meeting reports with all the relevant data, nothing more, nothing less
